General Information

Located within touching distance of the Brecon Beacons is the ideal Air BnB Investment Property. A large plot with mountain views, on a quiet single track road this double fronted stone cottage offers vacant possession and internally finished to an acceptable standard. Having updated utilities and three double bedrooms, a large dining room and two lounges the accomodation is spacious and offers many uses. Also having a brand new welsh slate roof and freshly plastered walls throughout.

Within close proximity to wild fields, farm land, walking paths, bridle ways and several villages and pubs, yet A465 access is a few miles away (23 miles). The gardens surrounding the property could be used for parking, further development and the detached garage is spacious and offers great workshop or storage potential.

The surrounding villages within a few miles away, also offering a lot of attractions such as Glynneath having The Old White Horse Inn, Sgwd Gwladys and Water Fall Country, Ystradgynlais having the popular Aubrey Arms and Craig y Nos with National Showcaves Centre for Wales, also the famous Pen-Y Cae Inn is just a few miles away! This is just a small selection of the amenities and attractions close by.

We highly believe this property would make the most perfect Airbnb with its beautiful views, location and surrounding amenities, it is also perfect for walkers who can enjoy the relaxing country side.
